light and contemporary décor of the accommodations, where a primarily white canvas is accented with dramatic splashes of purple and custom furnishings.

Their 30 aesthetically designed rooms (21 deluxe rooms, five luxury rooms, two junior suites and two deluxe suites) offer single, double and twin options. All rooms in cool white and purple shades bring in a sense of freshness and composure. The pop artwork in the rooms, corridors and doors based on musicians of Goa infuse vibrancy and life to this white resort.

Priya Paul, chairperson of the hotel, states, "Goa is a very well known tourist destination and one of my favourite getaways, hence the excitement while conceptualising the space was immense. With the launch of the Goa hotel, The Park hotels remain true to their mission of keeping the Indian accommodation, restaurant and entertainment scenario innovative, stylish and exciting. The Park on Holiday Beach co-exists in splendid harmony with nature and pampers guests

The hotel, located at the heart of Calangute strip, is done up with pristine white décor, featuring a turquoise blue pool, bright purple and violet hued lighting and expatiated stretches of golden sand.

while maintaining a serene and restful environment. We thrive to offer our guests the finest services and superlative amenities. With this new hotel, we bring The Park's brand of chic design, thrilling nightlife, luxury spas and innovative gastronomy to the beach paradise of Goa."

A Mecca for exoticism, this hotel has already become quite popular amongst leisure and business travellers. This seafront property flaunts an open-air lounge, 'Peace – Bar', where you can take pleasure in the breathtaking view of the ocean over a nice, pink Cosmopolitan after a long day of touring the local attractions. Do not forget to freeze the heart-stirring sunset view.

Below the sky-bar, the restaurant 'Love – Rest' awaits guests who wish to indulge in delectable Italian, Indian and Goan delicacies. Their open kitchen set-up offers one the option of having an interactive dining session whilst enjoying the bartender's classics and good music.

After endless sightseeing, shopping and partying, stretch out and relax on the daybeds and snowy white cabanas pepped up with bright orange, blue and purple cushions, stationed next to the turquoise pool wherein their in-house therapists would pamper you with relaxing foot massages, head massages or a dry Balinese body massage. Or perhaps, you can also take a refreshing dip in the pool or just soak in the sun while sipping on Margaritas and reading a book. And before bidding adieu to the day, do not forget to catch up on some old movies from their DVD library. © For more information, visit www.theparkhotels.com/goa or call 1800 11 PARK (7275)
